

Just as squirrels store nuts for the long cold winter when life is harder, we can remember small to big things we are grateful for to help us through hard times too. What are you thankful for (favorite food, person, stuffed animal, friend, whatever you can think of)? Write them in the acorns.

